Contents

There are 3 levels of character trait worksheets included, such that you can use whatever works best for your students and each student can work on the same activity at their own level.

Each worksheet includes a space for a drawing and a variable text section:

- Lined space with word bank.
- Lined space with word bank and prompts.
- 3 versions of traceable sentences.

Discussion Topics:

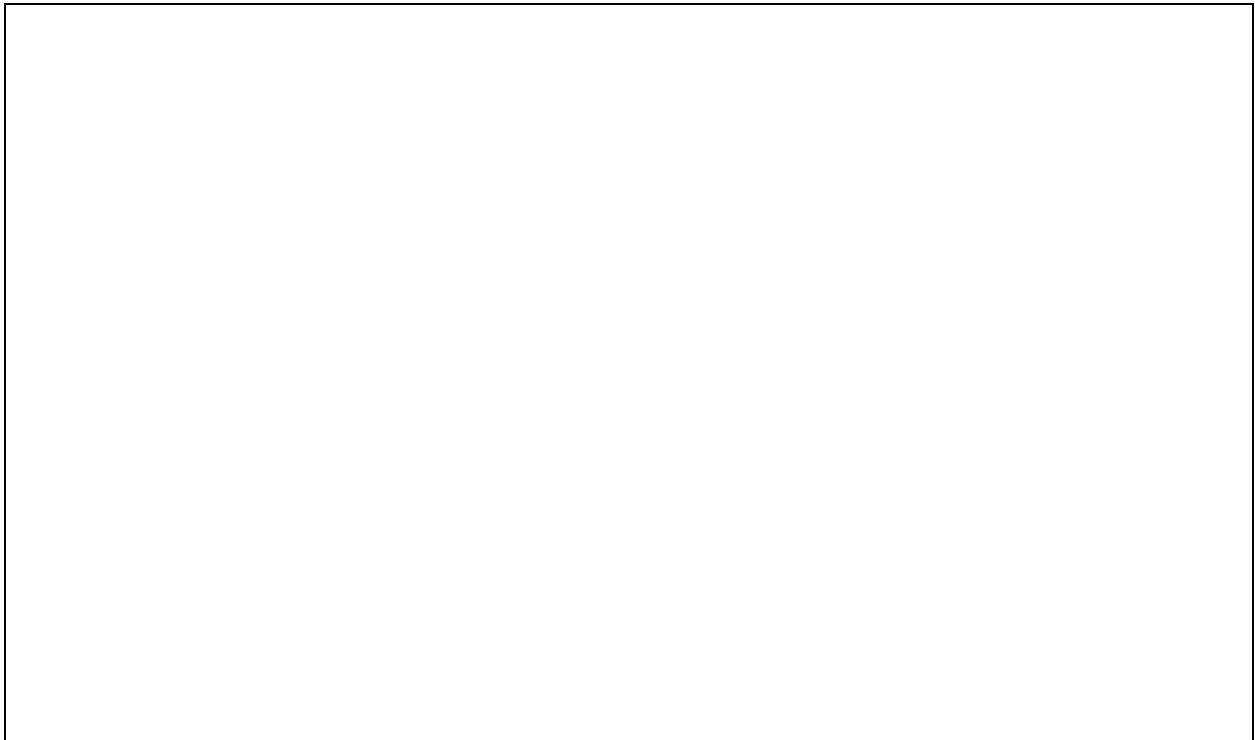

- What do you think a beekeeper does?
- How would you describe a beekeeper? What kind of character traits do you think a beekeeper might have?
 - brave because they take care of bees (which many people are scared of)
 - caring (because they take care of bees)
 - kind (because they are nice to living things)
 - calm (so they don't scare bees)
- How would you describe a honey bee? What kind of character traits do you think a bee might have?
 - Many students describe bees as "scary" (ask why) or on the complete other end of the spectrum as "cute" :-)

If you are having a beekeeper visit your classroom, here are some things to ask:

- Why do bees sting?
- How do you keep bees from stinging you?
- If I see a bee, what should I do to not get stung?
